NEWS LETTER - I

DATE: 28 February 2011

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I have the honor to write this news letter to you conveying further development in the organization of the Global Conference 2013 of which you have already received a colorful flyer either at Havana (Cuba) during the World Conference of Physical Education or at Delhi during CISSC Sept. 2010 or at 5th World Conference at Durban South Africa- Dec. 2010. Representatives of NAPES and H.V.P. Mandal Amravati had personally presented to you.

The Organizing Committee has widened the scope of the Conference by adding some interesting features listed below:

SPECIAL FEATURES

1. Traditional sports, games & systems of exercises.
2. Martial arts
3. Disable sports (sports by blind, deaf, dumb & handicapped)
4. Exhibition of ancient archeological findings depicting sports, folk dances and martial arts (photographs)
5. Outdoor display of traditional activities, calisthenics, mass exercises
6. Stage shows – performing arts, folk dances
7. Sculpture – drawing, painting depicting traditional sports, dances and martial arts.
8. Short courses in traditional physical education, yoga, Olympic values and other related topics.
9. Scientific sessions – presentation of papers & posters.
10. Guest lectures
11. Post – conference tours to historical places.

And much more fun, frolic and fan fare.

The organizing committee has made an approach to and applied for patronage of TAFISA and International Council of Sports Science & Physical Education (ICSSPE). The committee hopes to get positive response from them. The committee also approached the International Association for the History of Physical Education and Sports (ISHPES) and International Association of Physical Education and Sport for Girls and Women (IAPESGW) to patronize and be the partners. Both of these great organizations have recently conveyed their support and patronage to the global conference. We express our thanks to them and solicit further guidance.

In the mean time the programme committee has prepared tentative schedule of Events and dates as follows:
